Webster defeated them, 10 to 1. The game was a sorry spectacle from the Putnam point of view, even though the Webster fans did seem to enjoy it. Webster outhit and outran Putnam. They outplayed Putnam in all parts of the same. In five innings they had solved Wilson's delivery and had pounded him for 11 hits, resulting in seven scores. Putnam's only tally came in the last frame when McSherry hit safily and advanced to second on Crowthers' fumble of Gagnon's bouncer. A bingle by Rylander and a safety by Gallagher scored McSherry. Frank Keaney, captain of the Webster team, was the star of the game. He made five trips to the plate, hit safely four times for a total of six bases and scored three runs. In the field he accepted four chances without an error. Keaney was formerly submaster of the Putnam high school.

Spicer third, Sakel fourth and Hussareau fifth. Cotter and Normandi dropped out.

At the crack of the starter's pistol, Cotter took the lead, setting a fearful pace for a five mile race, practically starting o na sprint. He kept the gait up until he struck McKiniey avenue hill and from there on he gradually slowed up until he was forced to throw up the sponge on North Washington street. The runners were well bunched going up McKiniey avenue but they gradually strung out with Cotter leading and Charnetski and Sharkey at his heels. At the Park church Sharkey and Charnetski were running a dead heat.

Fuller Weakens in Eighth.

Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package

The game was featured by frome runs by Merkie, Fletcher and Whitted.

During the afternoon's event Umpire Harrison sent Manager Moran, Killifer and E. Burns off the field for objecting to his decisions on balls and strikes and Paskert was banished for hitting the umpire's which broom with his bat. Spectators threw pop bottles and cushions at Harrison and at the close of the game the umpire was escorted off the field by policemen. After E. Burns was banished, Byrne, veteran third baseman, went in to catch and did good work. Score:
